

ACS Clinic Referral Patterns

Monday PM (CWIT)	Wednesday AM (ENCOMPASS)	Wednesday PM (Trauma)	Thursday AM (EGS Elective)	Thursday AM (APP Follow-up)	Thursday PM (EGS Follow-Up)	Friday AM (Complex Care)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discharged from hospital after rib plating Discharged from hospital with rib fractures requiring further evaluation Follow-up rib-related problems from Monday PM (CWIT) clinic 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All patients enrolled in ENCOMPASS should be seen here Patients may require additional appointments in Wednesday PM (Trauma) clinic or Friday AM (Complex Care) clinic depending on needs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discharged from ED or hospital after trauma evaluation requiring outpatient follow-up Follow-up trauma-related problems from Monday PM (CWIT) clinic 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> New elective general surgery consultations Discharged from ED or hospital after EGS evaluation who still need an operation (e.g., non-operative appendicitis) Percutaneous cholecystostomy tubes ok Patients previously discharged from any ACS service who are returning for follow-up or a new problem (e.g., inguinal hernia recurrence one-year post-op) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discharged from the hospital after EGS operated on the patient (inpatient or elective) Patient overflow from Wednesday PM (Trauma) clinic or Thursday PM (EGS Follow-Up) clinic Do NOT schedule percutaneous cholecystostomy tube patients in this clinic Do NOT schedule patients here who might need additional operations (e.g., non-operative appendicitis) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discharged from the hospital after EGS operated on the patient (inpatient or elective) Follow-up general surgery-related problems from Thursday (EGS Follow-Up) clinic Do NOT schedule percutaneous cholecystostomy tube patients here Do NOT schedule patients here who might need additional operations (e.g., non-operative appendicitis) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Patients requiring long-term or multi-disciplinary care such as ventral hernias with EC fistulas or complex wounds Percutaneous cholecystostomy tubes ok Admission to this clinic requires approval from Berning, Terzian, Tierney, or Veatch Jenn Dickey will identify patients in Wednesday PM (Trauma) clinic or EGS PM (Follow-Up) clinic who should be transitioned to this clinic Most patients should not typically schedule here from ED or hospital at discharge

